

How to Post Essay #2 First Draft

1. In the Blackboard course module, scroll to Essay Assignments on the left hand menu and click on Essay #.

The screenshot shows a Blackboard course interface. On the left is a dark sidebar menu with the following items: Grades, Essay Assignments, Essay #1, Essay #2 (highlighted with a red box), Essay #3, and Final Exam. Below the menu is a link for Resources and Help. The main content area on the right contains the following text:

penalty for this assignment, however you must post your introduction before

If you have not done so already, please also be sure to register for an account o commons.gc.cuny.edu and accept the author invitation to the course website as account, you will NOT be able to successfully complete this course.

Moving forward, all class announcements will now be posted on the Academic Cor order to access your assignments DUE THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3rd, please acc Fall 2020 group or request membership at the link below.

- English Composition 1 – Fall 2020 (Academic Commons Group) -- <http://2010848442>

2. In the content area, select Essay #2 First Draft + Peer Review Group

The screenshot shows the content area of the Blackboard course. At the top, it says "Essay #2". Below this, there are two items listed:

-  Essay #2: Argumentative Essay
TBD
-  Essay #2 First Draft + Peer Review Group (highlighted with a red box)

3. Scroll to and select the peer review group in which you are enrolled. For instance, in the example below I would select Group 10.

The screenshot shows a list of peer review groups for Essay #1. Each group entry includes a title, instructions, and enrollment status:

- Essay #1 Peer Review Group 1
Post your first draft as a new blog entry. Then, read each of your group members' dr
(Not Enrolled)
- Essay #1 Peer Review Group 10 (highlighted with a red box)
Post your first draft as a new blog entry. Then, read each of your group members' dr
- Essay #1 Peer Review Group 2
Post your first draft as a new blog entry. Then, read each of your group members' dr
(Not Enrolled)

4. Under Group Tools, select Group Blog.

The screenshot shows a user interface with three main sections. The top section is titled "Group Properties" and contains a "Group Description" with instructions to "Post your first draft as a new blog entry. Then, read each of your group members' drafts and comment on the writer's main strengths and weaknesses." Below this is a "Group Members" list with six names: Dylan Chan, Donika Dedushaj, Shamecca Harris, Karen Herrera, Karen Lara, and Asya Parson. The middle section is titled "Group Tools" and has a "Group Blog" link highlighted with a red box. The bottom section is titled "Group Assignments".

5. Select Create Blog Entry to begin crafting your post.

The screenshot shows a group blog interface for "Essay #1 Peer Review Group 10". Below the group name and a descriptive sentence, there is a "More Help" link. A "Create Blog Entry" button is highlighted with a red box.

6. Attach your first draft to your blog entry as a Microsoft Word file. Be sure to give your post a title. Click Post to finish.

The screenshot shows a section titled "BLOG ENTRY FILES" with a dashed border. It contains three buttons: "Attach Files", "Browse My Computer" (highlighted with a red box), and "Browse Content Collection".